2. Reason for the change

[RFP] Chapter 2 Section C.2) and Chapter 10 Section A contemplate more than one party signing the contract, but the RFP does not set conditions for two or more companies proposing together as a consortium. NHSV keeps the principle of a single contract but allows a consortium proposal where it is not practicable for the Bidder alone to supply all three scope areas, and the changes below put every bidder on the same conditions. They also make clear that the Bidder must structure its delivery in line with applicable law and the rules of the connected institutions.

3. Changes

Change 1. Consortium proposals permitted

Insert the following as item 4) after item 3) of [RFP] Chapter 2 Section C.

Text to be added
4) Consortium: NHSV would prefer to award the three scope areas under a single contract. Where it is not practicable for the Bidder alone to supply all of them under a single contract, a proposal may be submitted by a consortium of two or more companies, and the Bidder decides the members and each member's scope. In that case the following applies.
a) Lead member: the members appoint one of them as lead member, which acts as NHSV's single point of contact (item 2)).
b) NHSV approval: as with re-subcontracting, the composition of the consortium requires NHSV's written approval (Chapter 10 Section I). A proposal that states the reason for proposing as a consortium, names the members, the lead member and each member's scope, and attaches the consortium agreement is treated as the request for approval, and NHSV notifies its decision in writing at the preferred-bidder negotiation stage. Any change to the members or their scope after submission requires NHSV's prior written approval.
c) Signature: [Form 1] Price Proposal and [Form 5] Undertaking to Participate are signed and sealed by every member, or by the lead member with powers of attorney from all members attached.
d) Eligibility (Chapter 1 Section B): conditions 1), 2) and 7) must be met by every member, and conditions 3) to 6) are assessed according to each member's scope.
e) Submission: attach the consortium agreement in Part II "About the Bidder" of the proposal (Chapter 11 Section A). Submit the financial statements and the list of comparable projects under Chapter 1 Section C.2) for each member.

Change 2. Compliance with applicable law and the rules of connected institutions

Insert the following as item 5) after item 4) of [RFP] Chapter 2 Section C.

Text to be added
5) Applicable law and connection rules: the Bidder shall structure its delivery, including the data center space (scope area ②), the external circuits (scope area ③) and any subcontracting, consortium or resale arrangement, so that it raises no issue under applicable Vietnamese law, including the Law on Telecommunications (Law No. 24/2023/QH15), or under the rules of the connected institutions such as the exchanges (HOSE and HNX), VSDC and the banks. The Bidder is responsible for confirming any registration, license or other qualification this requires.

4. Other matters
